

"Foot Care Important as Your Complexion"

Puffy, Tired, Aching Feet Change the Facial Expression and Are Often Responsible for Wrinkles.

Send for Free Trial TIZ Package Today.

A well rounded neck and shoulders are not enhanced in beauty when the feet make you look careworn and wrinkled.

Tired, aching feet get on your nerves; corns, callouses and bunions take all the sunshine out of life. And yet if you put your feet in a TIZ foot bath all foot troubles vanish, the feet take on a sensation of freshness and glow; your nerves and tired muscles at once relax, and your mind thus becomes amiable and your face reflects this in the smile of happiness. Try the TIZ foot bath plan. It draws out the acids and poisons, reduces all puffiness, makes your feet look trim, neat and well-cared for. Do not use anything else, for you will surely be disappointed.

For a free trial package, write to Walter Luther Dodge & Co., 1235 S. Wabash Ave., or to any drug store, department or general store and get a regular size box of TIZ—25 cents.

Church Affairs

The officers and teachers of the Sunday school of Trinity Methodist church held a picnic supper Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the basement rooms of the church at which plans for the fall and winter work of the Sunday school were discussed. The rally day will be held Sunday, September 23, and a special program of music and recitations will be arranged for it. On this day also the promotion will occur in the different grades of the Sunday school. Plans for increased work in the Sunday school were also discussed. Much interest was taken in the meeting and it is believed there is a very good future ahead for the Sunday school work. The meeting adjourned for the midweek prayer service, which was attended by over 100 people and then following the service the teachers held another hour's discussion about the Sunday school work.

Mrs. M. L. Dalton will entertain the Women's Missionary society of Highland Park Methodist church Friday afternoon at her home on the corner of Altura Boulevard and Courthouse street in Altura Park.

MRS. SCOTT'S SUFFERING OVER

Doctors Advised An Operation. How She Escaped Told By Herself.

Buckner, Mo.—"For more than a year I suffered agonies from female troubles and the doctors at last decided there was no help for me unless I went to the hospital for an operation. I was awfully against that operation, and as a last resort wrote to you for special advice and I told you just what I suffered with bearing down pains, backache, shooting pains in my left side, and at times I could not touch my foot to the floor without screaming. I was short of breath, had smothered spells, felt dull and draggy all the time. I could not do any work, and oh how I dreaded to have an operation.

"I received a letter full of kind advice, which I followed, and if I had only written her a year ago I would have been saved so much suffering, for today I am a well woman. I am now keeping house again and do every bit of my own work. Every one in this part of the country knows it was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that has restored me to health, and everywhere I go I recommend it to suffering women."

—Mrs. LIZZIE SCOTT, Buckner, Mo.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

An Artistic Design

Mole colored charmeuse is the material of this gown, which is cut on new lines. The sleeve is cut very long and wrinkles like a glove when worn. The dress is finished simply with a cord of the material. The feature of this gown is a long, narrow, black velvet apron and green silk, alternating with black velvet. A pilot edge is made in the apron, before they are sewed together, and a fringe of the two light shades finishes the ash ends.

Beauty Secrets Of Footlight Favorites

A Pretty Girl's Tricks Of Beauty

MISS DOROTHY JARDON.

(Prima donna of "The Winsome Widow" Company at Ziegfeld's Moulin Rouge.)

(By Dorothy Jardon.)

I AM too bashful to make any real claim to great beauty, and while I am very much flattered to be put in this series, I am afraid that I have no secrets of beauty, and no magic formulas, or creams, to enhance my looks, but like every girl in her right mind, I want to look as pretty as possible, and there are lots of little ways and tricks which make one appear more attractive than one really is. This may be deceitful, but anyhow, it's feminine, and I know that every other girl will sympathize with me in the desire to "pretty up," and perhaps some of them will profit by my suggestions.

When I am dressing to go out I always remember that the front view of myself which I get in the mirror is the best, because I have taken the most pains with that, but that there is also a side view, a view of the neck and straggling hair, of a collar that might be cleaner, or a veil that is torn, and when I think of all the belts that don't connect, my hand instinctively goes to my own waist line. A great many people talk against paint and powder, and I suppose everybody agrees that young girls should not use make-up of any kind. Of course, when you are on the stage, you get rather hardened to that sort of thing, though in general actresses are thankful to clean the paint off their faces, and I don't think they use as much paint on the street as do the people who never saw the footlights except from the two dollar side.

My strong objection to using powder on the street is that one never gets it on right.

Going to rehearsal this morning, I counted the number of faces that were badly powdered, with perfectly evident traces of badly applied make-up. There were 45 in two blocks.

LITTLE BOBBIE'S PA

By WILLIAM F. KIRK.

"NEWSPAPERS are funny things, ain't they, said Ma. One day they say one thing & the next day they say the same thing."

"You don't say so, said Pa. One day they say the same thing as they said the day before. It all must be very distressing to Mayor Gaynor, said Pa. You see, Pa, said Mister Gaynor, would be moar in favor of a press that was all the time differing itself, the way he is. There is one grand old man, no use talking. Sometimes I think he is moar than human. At least, said Pa, there is something about him that a human can't do out. The letters he writes, I mean, etc."

What I was going to say, speaking about newspapers, said Ma, was that I read a piece the other day that said Mister Burden Junior was sick of Newport beakus there was so many common people there. He said that all the Four Hundred was going to California, said Ma.

He did, did he, said Pa. My goodness!

You don't mean to tell me that all the Four Hundred is going to the other coast & leave the butchers & grocers here? Three thousand miles is a long ways, said Pa, & besides there ain't many good lawyers on the Pacific Slope. They do need so many lawyers out there. By the way, said Pa, who in—who is Mister Burden Junior? There is something about the name that sounds like a man with a lead, said Pa. I trust that he had a lead when he made that idiotic remark, said Pa.

You don't mean to burn up about it, said Ma. I didn't mean to start anything.

I always burn up, said Pa, when I see or hear anything about a bunch of nuts talking about common people. Who are common people anyway? said Pa. Abraham Lincoln, Napoleon, Socrates, Aesop, Oliver Cromwell—that is the kind of common people that Mister Burden Junior is talking about. Men that had big brains, big hands, big hearts & big bodies. Bless them, Pa, said, they had more brains under their finger nails than all the Juniors in the world. The wise guys in this world don't want any advice from Juniors, said Pa. There are too many Seniors tending bar—regular Seniors at that. Seniors in brain & manhood. They can't help it if they have to tend bar, said Pa.

Don't cry about it, said Ma, & don't have apoplexy, as I have often told you before. What in the world do I care about Burden Junior or any other member of the Four Hundred? & how do they know that anybody wants them out in California? Them Native Sons is kind of tough about the kind of folks that receive into their arms, Ma, said. I think the Four Hundred ought to rite four hundred letters before they pack their grips & move West.

Wife, said Pa, there are times that you show sum sense.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

C. L.: The hot sun and wind will not injure your skin, even though it is delicate, if you apply a spumax lotion each time you wash your face. This lotion is made by adding 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine to 1 pint water (hazel or hot water), then 4 ounces spumax. Powder and rouge are unnecessary when the spumax lotion is used, and if you apply the lotion every day you will find that it banishes tan and freckles, and keeps the skin shiny, healthy and free from all blotchy conditions. The spumax lotion is invisible when on and is not affected by wind or perspiration.

Myra: Each night apply pyroxin to lash roots with thumb and forefinger and they will come in long and silky. Eyebrows will grow thick and heavy by rubbing on pyroxin with finger tip. Be careful and don't get any where hair is not wanted.

Dorothy D.: No harm results when delatone is used to banish hairy growths. Just make a paste with some delatone and water, spread over hair and in 2 or 3 minutes remove, wash the skin, and every trace of hair or fuzz has vanished. Rarely is it necessary to use more than one application of delatone.

B. A.: Of course you cannot make your hair look bright and pretty, because soap was never intended for shampooing, as it causes the hair to grow streaky and brittle. Dissolve a teaspoonful canthrox in a cup hot water and you will find a most effective and a delightfully soothing and invigorating shampoo. The latter created by dissolving allays scalp irritation and dissolves dandruff and excess oil and after rinsing well, the hair and scalp are clean and sweet, while the hair grows quickly, with an even, rich color and beautiful gloss. Nothing compares with canthrox for keeping the hair silky, brilliant and fluffy in hot weather.

Mrs. J. R.: Boils indicate a poison-laden blood, and you can hope for little relief until the poisons are eliminated from the system. In 1-2 pint alcohol pour 1 ounce karsene, then put in 1-2 cupful sugar and hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before each meal and you will soon be rid of the boils. This tonic will clear on the skin and give you health and energy, and should be kept handy in the house, as its use often prevents serious sickness.

X. L.: You can obtain quick relief from burning smarting eyes by frequently dropping 2 or 3 drops of a plain cryates eye-tonic in each eye. This harmless tonic is made by dissolving 1 ounce cryates in a pint water. For soreness or for removing foreign particles, as well as for granulated lids, it is unequalled. T-dull, listless eyes it will give a youthful charm and sparkle, and its occasional use frequently overcomes the need for wearing glasses.

Esther H.: You cannot expect to have a clear, fair skin so long as you continue using greasy creams and smother the pores with powder. Make up and use this plain almonox cream jelly, followed by an application of the spumax lotion (see answer to C. L.): Put 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine into 1-2 pint cold water, then add 1 ounce almonox. Let stand for several hours, then apply to skin and massage in well. This harmless treatment gently dissolves fatty tissues without inconvenience and does not call for dieting or violent exercise. You can reduce your weight to where you want it and your flesh will be firm and the skin free from wrinkles, redness, burning and stings from using the parotitis treatment, and there need be no fear of the returning once the treatment is discontinued.

Grace W.: The discomfort you suffer from sunburns can be easily remedied if you will get 4 ounces karsene and dissolve in 1-2 pint water. This almost instantly soothes the burning and stops irritation. Its continued use puts the scalp in a healthy condition and encourages a beautiful growth of silky, brilliant hair. It is a good idea to shampoo occasionally with canthrox (see answer to B. A.) then use the karsene tonic once or twice each week.
